1. Composition

The Committee shall comprise at least two members from amongst the Non-Executive Directors of the Company. Members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board. An Executive Director may be a member.

Appointments to the Committee shall be for a period of up to three years, extendable at the Board's discretion.

The Board shall appoint the Committee Chairman. In the absence of the Committee Chairman and/or an appointed deputy, the remaining members present shall elect one of themselves to chair the meeting.

2. Quorum

The quorum necessary for the transaction of business shall be two directors, both of whom must be independent non-executive directors.

3. Frequency of meetings

The committee shall meet at least twice a year and otherwise as required.

4. Notice of meetings

The Committee shall be called by the secretary of the committee at the request of the committee chairman.

Unless otherwise agreed, notice of each meeting confirming the venue, time and date, together with an agenda of items to be discussed, shall be forwarded to each member of the committee, any other person required to attend and all other non-executive directors, no later than five working days before the date of the meeting.

Supporting papers shall be sent to committee members and to other attendees as appropriate, at the same time.

5. Minutes of meetings

One of the meeting attendees, possibly by rotation, shall minute the proceedings and decisions of all meetings of the Committee, including recording the names of those present and in attendance.

Draft minutes of Committee meetings shall be circulated promptly to all members of the Committee. Once approved, minutes should be circulated to all other members of the Board unless it would be inappropriate to do so in the opinion of the Committee Chairman.

6. Purpose and Duties

The Committee shall:

- a) regularly review the structure, size and composition (including the skills, knowledge, experience and diversity) of the Board and make recommendations to the Board with regard to any changes
- b) give full consideration to succession planning for directors and other senior executives in the course of its work, taking into account the challenges and opportunities facing the company, and the skills and expertise needed on the Board in the future
- c) keep under review the leadership needs of the organisation, both executive and non-executive, with a view to ensuring the continued ability of the organisation to compete effectively in the marketplace
- d) keep up to date and fully informed about strategic issues and commercial changes affecting the company and the market in which it operates
- e) be responsible for identifying and nominating for the approval of the Board, candidates to fill Board vacancies as and when they arise
- f) before any appointment is made by the Board, evaluate the balance of skills, knowledge, experience and diversity on the Board, and, in the light of this evaluation, prepare a description of the role and capabilities required for a particular appointment.

In identifying suitable candidates the committee shall:

- a) use open advertising or the services of external advisers to facilitate the search
- b) consider candidates from a wide range of backgrounds
- c) consider candidates on merit and against objective criteria and with due regard for the benefits of diversity on the Board, including gender, taking care that appointees have enough time available to devote to the position
- d) for the appointment of a chairman, the committee should prepare a job specification, including the time commitment expected. A proposed chairman's other significant commitments should be disclosed to the Board before appointment and any changes to the chairman's commitments should be reported to the Board as they arise.
- e) prior to the appointment of a director, the proposed appointee should be required to disclose any other business interests that may result in a conflict of interest and be required to report any future business interests that could result in a conflict of interest

- f) ensure that on appointment to the Board, non-executive directors receive a formal letter of appointment setting out clearly what is expected of them in terms of time commitment, committee service and involvement outside Board meetings.
- g) review the results of the Board performance evaluation process that relate to the composition of the Board
- h) review annually the time required from non-executive directors. Performance evaluation should be used to assess whether the nonexecutive directors are spending enough time to fulfil their duties
- i) work and liaise as necessary with all other Board committees.

The committee shall also make recommendations to the Board concerning:

- a) formulating plans for succession for both executive and non-executive directors and in particular for the key roles of chairman and chief executive
- b) suitable candidates for the role of senior independent director
- c) membership of the audit and remuneration committees, and any other Board committees as appropriate, in consultation with the chairman of those committees the re-appointment of any non-executive director at the conclusion of their specified term of office having given due regard to their performance and ability to continue to contribute to the Board in the light of knowledge, skills and experience required
- d) the re-election by shareholders of directors under the annual re-election provisions of the Code or the retirement by rotation provisions in the company's articles of association, having due regard to their performance and ability to continue to contribute to the Board in the light of the knowledge, skills and experience required and the need for progressive refreshing of the Board (particularly in relation to directors being re-elected for a term beyond six years)
- e) any matters relating to the continuation in office of any director at any time including the suspension or termination of service of an executive director as an employee of the company subject to the provisions of the law and their service contract
- f) the appointment of any director to executive or other office
- g) the Nomination Committee also makes recommendations to the Board about the membership of the Audit and Remuneration Committees.
- h) The Nomination Committee also considers the future of the Board, taking into account the challenges and opportunities facing Flying Futures, and the skills and expertise which will be required by the Board.

7. Reporting responsibilities

- a) the committee chairman shall report to the Board on its proceedings after each meeting on all matters within its duties and responsibilities
- b) the committee shall make whatever recommendations to the Board it deems appropriate on any area within its remit where action or improvement is needed
- c) the committee shall produce a report to be included in the company's annual report about its activities, the process used to make appointments and explain if external advice or open advertising has not been used. Where an external search agency has been used, it shall be identified in the annual report and a statement made as to whether it has any connection with the company
- d) the report referred to in 9.3 above should include a statement of the Board's policy on diversity, including gender, any measurable objectives that it has set for implementing the policy, and progress on achieving the objectives.

8. Other matters

The committee shall:

- a) have access to sufficient resources in order to carry out its duties, including access to the company secretariat for assistance as required
- b) be provided with appropriate and timely training, both in the form of an induction programme for new members and on an ongoing basis for all members
- c) give due consideration to laws and regulations, and best practice in Flying Future's nomination and appointment activities
- d) arrange for periodic reviews of its own performance and, at least annually, review its constitution and terms of reference to ensure it is operating at maximum effectiveness and recommend any changes it considers necessary to the Board for approval.

9) Authority

The committee is authorised by the Board to obtain, at the company's expense, outside legal or other professional advice on any matters within its terms of reference.
